PRICE THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. The Panton Magazine is now in the meridian of its popularity, and as aspiring hopes without a shadow, and cloudless prospects without a horizon, continue to cheer it on its way, we may reasonably anticipate for it a long day of triumph. For general appearance, mechanical arrangement and typographical execution it may justly assert its claim to rank among the most beautiful periodicals in the United States. Tho Literary Department is contributed to by many of the ablest writers in the country; men whose names if they give us permission to use them, rould save claims upon the public through the medium of prospectus. For selections the literary gardens of all America and half of Europe are open to us; and if we fail in this particular, the defeat must be only attributed to want of taste. The Fushions shall meet with due attention. We have made arrangements to obtain the earliest intelligence from London and Paris, in respect to the vari-ous changes, which shall be inserted as soon as

The Parlor Magazine shall be occasionally embellished with beautiful engravings upon in-teresting subjects; and plates of the newest fashions, plain or colored, as circumstances per-mit, besides a great variety of wood cuts, and a piece of original music, twice a mouth.
